Davio's Northern Italian Steakhouse Preview Night
Fundraiser, Oct. 2 Will Benefit Alzheimer's Orange County

Irvine, CA (September 28, 2018) - Local nonprofit Alzheimer's Orange County ("AOC") will be the sole beneficiary of a fundraising preview night at the new 10,000-square-foot Davio's Northern Italian Steakhouse ("Davio's") in Irvine. The exclusive event is set for Tuesday, October 2, 2018 from 6 until 8 PM and will offer menu tastings, fine wines and cocktails. The suggested minimum donation is $50 per person. 100% of all proceeds will benefit AOC. To RSVP, email rsvp@davios.com.

The highly anticipated Davio's Irvine location follows a succession of popular restaurants across the US established by Davio's CEO, Steve DiFillippo. DiFillippo, a philanthropist at heart who serves on several nonprofit boards, believes in giving back to the local communities where his restaurants operate. DiFillippo chose Alzheimer's Orange County as the charity of choice to benefit from the opening preview night of Davio's Irvine.

For over 35 years, AOC has been the leading nonprofit in Orange County for Alzheimer's and dementia support. AOC offers free services and programs that help alleviate the stresses of caregiving and empower families to live the best life possible when facing a dementia diagnosis.

"The origin of Alzheimer's Orange County is rooted in the firm belief of serving our local community," said AOC CEO and president Jim McAleer. "We exist to do all that we can to help Orange County families through this devastating disease, and we will continue to do so until the day there is a cure."

As a local organization, AOC directs 100% of its funds to programs and services for Orange County families. In 2017, the organization served over 25,000 individuals with memory loss and their caregivers through services like its telephone helpline, adult day centers, personalized care consultations, caregiver support groups, education and training classes, and more.

Davio's Irvine is located at 18420 Von Karman Avenue in the Irvine Towers. Under the leadership of General Manager Bryce MacCharles and Executive Chef Istvan Toth, the restaurant will serve an array of carefully sourced and seasonally inspired Northern Italian cuisine featuring handmade pasta, fresh seafood and salads as well as prime aged Brandt Beef.

The official grand opening of the Irvine location will take place the evening following the fundraising benefit. Irvine joins the roster of other Davio's locations in Atlanta, Boston, Philadelphia and New York City.
