LOS ALAMITOS, CA — This month, Davio's Northern Italian Steakhouse hosted their grand opening event at the new restaurant in Irvine. The eatery celebrated the expansion of their brand to the west coast, with 100% of the proceeds benefiting local nonprofit organization, Alzheimer's Orange County.

"The Davio's team successfully raised over $16,000 for the charity," event organizers told Patch.

Guests of the event were among the first to experience the restaurant, from its signature dishes, refreshing cocktails, and Davio's wine, as well as the incredible hospitality provided by the team.

Owned by Steve DiFillippo, who began the restaurant in Boston's trendy Back Bay, Davio's has locations in Foxborough, Philadelphia, New York City, and Atlanta to name a few. This is a fine dining experience, and the 10th Davio's location to open.

Davio's in Irvine is located at the Irvine Towers, situated in 10,000 square feet of space. The menu "is locally sourced, and seasonally inspired Northern Italian cuisine that features handmade pasta, fresh seafood and salads as well as prime aged Brandt beef," according to a restaurant spokesperson. When you go, you should expect a true fine dining experience, with skilled staff who live by the motto it's "all about the guest."
