“Being open is a huge relief! It’s so fun to see guests come through and appreciate all the little things we did to try to make our experience stand out — like theming the lobby, having staff in character, and using immersive hint systems,” Dautrich said. “It was a rough road, but I’m really happy with the outcome!”

Golf tournament May 19 benefits AlzOC

Alzheimer’s Orange County (AlzOC) is hosting its ninth annual Golf Fore Alzheimer’s Tournament on Friday, May 19 at Arroyo Trabuco Golf Club in Mission Viejo.

In the last nine years, the tournament has raised at least $700,000 for AlzOC. This year, the fundraising goal is $150,000, with money supporting the nonprofit’s services and programs.

The tournament will feature morning and afternoon golf sessions, available as foursomes or individual tickets.

For details on pricing for the tournament, go to alzoc.org/golf.
