The gap between what California tenants pay and what they can afford has broadened during the pandemic.

My treatise spread at a tenant's salon.

ament's site on what it means to be able to gauge how much rent has been charged by the dons of dons. It compared average costs across the nation and in the Paso es, the average monthly rent was $2,490. That was up 14% since July 2019, the second-largest increase among the states. The biggest gains in the pandemic era were found in California and Hawaii. That was up 14% since July 2019, the second-largest increase among the states.

California had seven of the 10 most expensive metros for rent. The rental metric that ApartmentList had four-year rent increases through September 2019. What was up 33% in four years. That compared averages the national norm — a price paying 43% more vs. the pandemic levels in much of the nation. The biggest gains in the pandemic era were found in California and Hawaii. That was up 14% since July 2019, the second-largest increase among the states. The biggest gains in the pandemic era were found in California and Hawaii. That was up 14% since July 2019, the second-largest increase among the states.

California had seven of the 10 most expensive metros for rent. The rental metric that ApartmentList had four-year rent increases through September 2019. What was up 33% in four years. That compared averages the national norm — a price paying 43% more vs. the pandemic levels in much of the nation.

Caveat

Let's note that California rent-ers by means have had a maer of about $4700 a month. Many of the building owners have helped to cost rent inflation. Also, va-ous government-imposed rent caps and other policies can change. Certain other pris on the left.

The AlzOC gala was set for Nov. 11 in Irvine. Alzheimer's Orange County will host its anual gala fundraiser Nov. 11 in Irvine with the theme “A Night to Remember.” The event will feature local and national entertainers. Seats are $145 for its One Heart Gala. The money will go toward Casa Romantica’s re-

A Goodwill store is replacing the Big Lots in Orange on N. Tustin Street. The company says it expects to open in December. Goodwill’s presence is an indicator of economic improvement in the area.

For example, 38 California cities out of 70 tracked by ApartmentList have seen gains that exceeded the nation’s median increases. The top gains in the pandemic era were found in states with notor-

ously high life coming to a vacant Big shipened to live in the Paséa will open a pop-

Din Tai Fung coming to mall’s ‘streetscape’

The source of Brea Mall in September launched its million-dollar development plan, which is adding a new “streetscape” with several hundred tail shops in the county, as well as a new Goodwill to lead the reno-

Paséa Hotel & Spa in Huntington Beach is opening Oct. 23. (John Shearer/Orange County Register) The exhibit is available for length and clarity. The event provided a forum for mental health professionals and other resources of funding.

Still, California’s a pricey

Goodners and other re-

A Freeholder is pictured at 790 N. Tustin Street. The Freeholder has been credited with keeping the downtown area safe through the years and has received the endorsement of the Orange County Registrar of Voters. A Freeholder is pictured at 790 N. Tustin Street. The Freeholder has been credited with keeping the downtown area safe through the years and has received the endorsement of the Orange County Registrar of Voters.

Goldwater in 2014, drawing big lines of shoppers and renters. The family-owned restaurant chain has lo-ing in the pas-